WE WELCOME NEW VOLUNTEERS

Albertina's Restaurant and Shops offer varied opportunities for men and women who want to make a difference in the community through meaningful work in a warm, friendly atmosphere.

Whatever your skill, you'll find a home in our volunteer-run businesses or in our gardens, archives and offices. Training is provided for weekday and weekend positions. For more information call 503-231-3909 or visit www.kerrshops.org.

Albertina's Restaurant and Shops benefits Albertina Kerr, where children, adults and families of Oregon who face mental health challenges and developmental disabilities are empowered every day to lead fuller, self-determined lives. Learn more at www.AlbertinaKerr.org.

SETTING THE MOOD FOR SPRING

Brighten a spot in your life while supporting a great cause.

Spring has arrived at The Old Kerr Nursery! The daffodils are blooming along our pathways and the sunshine is brightening up the garden room at Albertina's Restaurant.

If you're looking to brush off your winter blues and rejuvenate your home and wardrobe, Albertina's Restaurant and Shops has everything to fit your needs and budget. And, because proceeds are donated to Albertina Kerr, you'll help support our work in the community.

Join us at Albertina's Restaurant for light and refreshing lunch dishes and stay to spend the afternoon shopping at the Kerr Gift Shop, the Kerr Thrift Shop and Kerr's Economy Jar. You're bound to find unique gifts, fresh accessories and timeless antiques to help you set the scene for a stunning spring. Look inside for details on the kinds of items you can expect to see during your next visit.

Volunteer Arleen Crucchiola sits down to a cheery table set for spring. See inside for details on items pictured here, all of which are available at Albertina's Restaurant and Shops, where proceeds are donated to Albertina Kerr.

Barbara Hawxhurst

Adding a personal touch at Kerr Thrift Shop

Barbara Hawxhurst has been volunteering with The Old Kerr Nursery Association for eight years, the last six at the Kerr Thrift Shop. She got involved volunteering through a recommendation by a friend. Additionally, her granddaughter once received services from Albertina Kerr, giving her an added reason to show her support.

Barbara enjoys volunteering because she's a self-proclaimed antique buff, having spent time working in her mother's antique shop growing up. At the Kerr Thrift Shop, she thinks the clean and organized atmosphere is what keeps customers coming back.

"All the volunteers give it the personal touch and we make sure we have things people will be interested in on display," she said. "We make it a place we would want to shop, and I do. We all do."

Marvelous Brownie ala Mode, a featured dessert arriving at Albertina's Restaurant the third week in June. Authentic handpainted plates from Austria and France, from top to bottom: $26, $30 and $30. Plates, tablecloth, silver, napkin and Minton floral teacups, part of a set of china, available at Kerr's Economy Jar.
